VISUAL REDRESS IN AFRICA CONFERENCE 7-8 DECEMBER 2023

THURSDAY 7 DECEMBER 2023

Stephen Townsend: Re-Dressing the Public Realm in Times of Change  2 Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art Design of South Afr  3 Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  1 Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	orge J Sefa Dei eak ited to a roundtable discussion to share linked to art(s)-based juxtaposition. Please lance a debate on this topical issue it with Charles Palm : Pre-recorded ostandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress so Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng,
Noundtable Discussion: Interested participants are inversed particip	ited to a roundtable discussion to share linked to art(s)-based juxtaposition. Please ance a debate on this topical issue at with Charles Palm:  Pre-recorded:  Ostandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress  So Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica osibanda: Creating Counter Narratives bigital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the ndi Genocide:  Pre-recorded
Roundtable Discussion: Interested participants are invexperiences and expertise on the principle of and possibilities identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enforce identify specific examples of statue in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of statue in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in the problem of subtraction in the problem of subtraction in the enforce identified in the problem of subtraction in th	ited to a roundtable discussion to share linked to art(s)-based juxtaposition. Please cance a debate on this topical issue at with Charles Palm:  Pre-recorded:  Ostandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress  So Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica is Sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives Digital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the Indi Genocide:  Pre-recorded
10:00 - 11:35  experiences and expertise on the principle of and possibilities identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enhance identify specific examples of statue linked juxtaposition to enhance it in 1:35 - 12:45  Lunch Break and Kruithuis walkabou 12:45 - 14:00  ROOM 1  Stephen Townsend: Re-Dressing the Public Realm in Times of Change  Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art Design of South Afr  Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  14:05 - 15:40  ROOM 1  Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through Urte Ever	Inked to art(s)-based juxtaposition. Please cance a debate on this topical issue at with Charles Palm  : Pre-recorded  Ostandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress  So Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica  O Sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives Digital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the ndi Genocide  : Pre-recorded
1 Stephen Townsend: Re-Dressing the Public Realm in Times of Change  2 Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art  3 Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  1 Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  2 Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  3 Kenders of Contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through Urte Ever	estandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress of Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica of Sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives of Sibanda: The Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the Indi Genocide
Stephen Townsend: Re-Dressing the Public Realm in Times of Change  Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art Design of South Afr  Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  1 Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	ostandius, Amelda Brandt and Gera de mbodied learning and visual redress so Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives Digital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the ndi Genocide : Pre-recorded in Times of Change  2 Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art  3 Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  1 Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	mbodied learning and visual redress so Molebatsi, Gary I. Stafford, and Christina Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica Sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives Digital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the Indi Genocide : Pre-recorded
Amanda Msimang and Alex Noble: Decolonisation, Heritage Preservation, and the role of Public Art  Jessica Lindiwe Draper: The Changing 'Face' of African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  14:05 - 15:40 ROOM 1  Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	Guiding Principles for the Architectural Traditional Health Practices in Gauteng, ica Sibanda: Creating Counter Narratives Digital Archives in Zimbabwe: The Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the Indi Genocide Pre-recorded
African Art Memorials: Leaving Space for the Layers of Collective Memory to Breathe  14:05 - 15:40  ROOM 1  Kalala Ngalamulume: The Faidherbe Statue and Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	oligital Archives in Zimbabwe: The r Innovation and Technology (CITE) and the ndi Genocide  : Pre-recorded
Kalala Ngalamulume:The Faidherbe Statue and Mendong Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887-2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Lisandra Mendong memoriza and the research in Stone: Hugh Ellis in organization of contested monuments and Shifting regions of contention of Concern
1 Memory-Making in Saint-Louis, Senegal. 1887- 2022"  Keolebogile Mbebe: An Identity Not Set in Stone: Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Mendonç memoriza and the re Nikolass v contention Urte Ever	ranco de Mendonca and Ricardo
Addressing the Statue Debate and Transitional Justice  Hendrik Auret and Kobus du Preez: Rescripting contested monuments amid shifting regions of concern  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Hugh Ellis in organiz	a: Reclaiming heritage: The re- ition of colonial symbols of (dis)possession eturn of Gungunhana to Maputo
3 contested monuments amid shifting regions of contention  Tanja Schult: Redressing South Africa through  Urte Ever	: A curt farewell? The power of social media ing the fall of a colonial symbol /ande Keere: Museum B   (Re)collecting us statues in Belgium and Congo t: Decolonize Bismarck-Monuments? What wants to learn from African Countries
15:40 - 16:00 Coffee and Tea Bro	Coffee and Tea Break
16:00 - 17:35 ROOM 1 ROOM 2	: Pre-recorded
I /In/is///a M/a//iso. Redressing ( Olonial Research   I	ebe Serekoane: Reflecting on the past in nt and the imagination of 'the' future andscape
Tsholofelo Moche: Spirit: Kwesta's allegory of redress residue in Polokwan	Shaun Mphahlele and Samukezi Mrubula- Visual Redress: Mapping the colonial and out of the walls in the city of e, Limpopo Province.
Siphe Potelwa and Siboniso Nivi: Art appropriation's effect on South African contemporary art Obakeng	Kgongoane: The Afro-future city decolonizing African art discourse	Motala and David A. Wallace: Development ng app for sites of forced removal: The walking tour
18:00 - 20:00 Evening Reception	Evening Reception

FRIDAY 8 DECEMBER 2023

08:00 - 08:30	Regis	stration
08:30 - 08:45	Welcome and Introduction
08:45 - 09:30	Keynote Address: Dr Ndubuisi Ezeluomba
09:30 - 09:45	Coffee and Tea Break
09:45 - 11:20	ROOM 1	ROOM 2
1	Janine Lewis: [left] in the cracks: an immersive travelling site-specific event space performed on the TUT Faculty of Arts & Design campus as reminder of calls for forgotten futures	Jacoba Meiring: Re-imagining learning and teaching art: Redressing ways of seeing through embodied mark- making with foundation phase student teachers at Cape Peninsula University of Technology
2	Julia Arbuckle: Mediums of Memory	Gerhard Bosman: Redressed service learning: Litema rural art and architecture
3	Sophia Rosochacki: The African Art collection at the Iziko South African National Gallery: Past, present, possible futures.	Albert Grundlingh and Elmarie Costandius: Memorialisation and redress: The Craven statue on the Stellenbosch University campus
4	Charles Palm: Interventions at the Stellenbosch Kruithuis Museum
11:25 - 13:00	ROOM 1	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded
1	Lauren van der Rede: Between ruin and redress: The Question of Public and Spatial Remembrance of the Genocide in Rwanda	Ilhaam Khan and Deirdre Pretorius: The (re)design of the University of Johannesburg's student residence and day house logos
2	Francois J. Cleophas: Utilising a Stellenbosch stone age heritage site for sport historical studies and teaching	Paul Hendricks and Donovan Ward: The making of the United Democratic Front (UDF) Memorial: Integrating theory and practice
3	Renee Hector-Kannemeyer and Otto van Noie: Reimagining Belonging: Visual Redress as Restitution	Ndukaeze Nwabueze: The sociological dimensions of visual redress
4	Merna Meyer: Unveiling the Visual Redress in Higher Education at the North-West University: A Disruptive Narrative	Judith Dyeme Daduut: Public Sculptures in Jos Metroplis/Metropolian Areas, a Devastating Loss.
13:00 - 14:00		about in the Visual Arts Building
13:00 - 14:00 14:00 - 15:35	Lunch Break and Gradex walk ROOM 1	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded
14:00 - 15:35	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson
14:00 - 15:35	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine,	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance
14:00 - 15:35 1 2	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa,
14:00 - 15:35 1  2  3  4  15:35 - 15:50	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol of hope or despair?  Francois J. Cleophas and Karabo Abuki: (Mis)representations of class and 'race' on and around Die Braak in Stellenbosch  Coffee ar	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa, exported to Brazil  Bojor Enamhe: Ikom Monoliths and the Changing Landscape
14:00 - 15:35 1 2 3	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol of hope or despair?  Francois J. Cleophas and Karabo Abuki: (Mis)representations of class and 'race' on and around Die Braak in Stellenbosch	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa, exported to Brazil  Bojor Enamhe: Ikom Monoliths and the Changing Landscape  Ind Tea Break  ROOM 2: Pre-recorded
14:00 - 15:35 1  2  3  4  15:35 - 15:50	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol of hope or despair?  Francois J. Cleophas and Karabo Abuki: (Mis)representations of class and 'race' on and around Die Braak in Stellenbosch  Coffee ar	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa, exported to Brazil  Bojor Enamhe: Ikom Monoliths and the Changing Landscape  Ind Tea Break  ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  ALAWODE, Musa Ajibola: Ife art school as a centre of decolonisation and decolonial thinking in Nigerian visual art practice
14:00 - 15:35  1  2  3  4  15:35 - 15:50  15:50 - 17:25	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol of hope or despair?  Francois J. Cleophas and Karabo Abuki: (Mis)representations of class and 'race' on and around Die Braak in Stellenbosch  Coffee ar ROOM 1  Andisiwe Diko: The margin as an ambivalent space:	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa, exported to Brazil  Bojor Enamhe: Ikom Monoliths and the Changing Landscape  Ind Tea Break  ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  ALAWODE, Musa Ajibola: Ife art school as a centre of decolonisation and decolonial thinking in Nigerian
14:00 - 15:35  1  2  3  4  15:35 - 15:50  15:50 - 17:25	ROOM 1  Chiedza Kehle: Internalised colonialism and the resistance to visual redress  Faaiz Gierdien: Ways of reading the GG Cillié Building's inauguration reported in the magazine, Matieland (1970)  Omar Esau: Is the Springbok rugby emblem a symbol of hope or despair?  Francois J. Cleophas and Karabo Abuki: (Mis)representations of class and 'race' on and around Die Braak in Stellenbosch  Coffee ar ROOM 1  Andisiwe Diko: The margin as an ambivalent space: The rural women trope in South Africa  Tiisetso Mofokeng: An in-depth investigation into the safety of Nyanga's public spaces from a gender-	ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  Felix Onoruarome Ophori: Artistic practices as resistance in contemporary Nigeria: The Nelson Edewor's sculpture  Duduzile Mathebula: Beads as symbols of resistance and resurgence  Helmut Renders: The booklet "the heart of men" or the creation of a racist iconography, made in South Africa, exported to Brazil  Bojor Enamhe: Ikom Monoliths and the Changing Landscape  Ind Tea Break  ROOM 2: Pre-recorded  ALAWODE, Musa Ajibola: Ife art school as a centre of decolonisation and decolonial thinking in Nigerian visual art practice  Benjamin Johnson Egbele: The decline of public art practice in Nigeria: Its effects on artists' currentposition and the socio-cultural development of their immediate